

Press Release

For Immediate Release

May 2nd, 2023

Writer Contact: Nina Badagliacco, Administrative Marketing Intern, (847) 926-9898, nina@mya.org

Fun for the Whole Family at MYAC's Fun Fest!

Join us on Sunday, May 7th, 2023 from 12 – 6pm at the MYAC Center for a community event full of music performances and family fun activities! We will have food trucks, face painting, a bouncy castle, carnival games and much more! Throughout the day, students from the Midwest Young Artists Conservatory will be performing live for everyone to listen! This is a great way to learn about all of our youth music programs. All of our large ensembles, some chamber music groups, and jazz combos will take the stage. Checkout the concert schedule listed below:

Noon: Jazz Ensemble

12:30pm: Reading/Cadet Orchestra

12:45pm: Demo of Mr. Mark's Music & Movement Class

1:00pm: Maestros Choral Ensemble

1:30pm: Concertino Orchestra

2:00pm: Jazz Orchestra

2:30pm: Philharmonia Orchestra

3:00pm: Concert Orchestra

3:30pm: Concert Jazz Band

4:00pm: Voices Rising & VocalPoint Choral Ensembles

4:30pm: Symphony Orchestra

There will be many carnival games and also some unique activities. Younger children will love face painting and a bouncy castle. Teenagers will love creating street signs. Adults will be intrigued by handwriting analysis. There is something for everyone at the North Shore Jazz & Classical Music Festival! Bring the whole family!

Admission is free for this event, but bring cash and/or a credit card to purchase tickets for carnival games, unique activities and food. Everyone is welcome!